Mother Teresa's Helping Hands

The annual food collection for Thanksgiving and Christmas is now underway. Parishioners who are coordinating these food drives asked for specific food items from the different grade levels. If you know of anyone who is in need of food for Thanksgiving and Christmas, please email or call me. All information will be kept confidential but we do not want anyone to be without food. Thank you!

Tuesday 10/31

Feast:

Halloween celebrations will take place in the classrooms. Please check with your child's teacher regarding time. All celebrations should end by 2:20 so that we can clean up and prepare for dismissal. All volunteers must have the necessary clearances. If you need help with your clearances, please call Mrs. Gehman or Mrs. Calderaio at the front desk. Thank you to everyone who is able to join us and help the teachers today. It is a dress down day for the children. They may wear: Halloween tops and an accessory with sweatpants, gym shorts, jeans with no holes or rips in them, or sports shorts/pants. No clothing may have inappropriate pictures or words and all body parts must be covered. Students may not wear jeggings or leggings.

8:45 AM Installation of the Class Representatives

Looking Ahead:

Fr. Brandt, Mrs. Merritt, and I will head to Washington, DC to receive the National Blue Ribbon Award. There are sessions for school representatives throughout the day on Monday and Tuesday. There is a lunch on Tuesday followed by the ceremony and distribution of awards by states. We will bring home the awards and all the information we are given so that we can share it with you.

On Friday, November 10th Father Brandt will offer a Mass of Thanksgiving for receiving the National Blue Ribbon Award. The mass will be at 9:00 AM. We will honor the faculty and staff at 8:45 AM in church before mass begins. You are most welcome to join us if you can fit it into your schedule.

Ms. Dixon
