PA Budget and EITC/OSTC Update:

Jason M. Budd, Deputy Secretary for Catholic Education in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is an advocate for us in Harrisburg. He has been out in Harrisburg watching the budget dilemma and wrote to the principals to say that it is at a critical stage. He requested that we ask all parent/grandparents/friends and supporters of Catholic education to push one last time for increases in EITC/OSTC. You can do this with the voter voice link below or by direct contact with the legislator's office.

As you know, personal contacts are more effective, so here is a link for determining who your legislators are:

Thank you for any contacts you can make in support of EITC/OSTC.

I am very happy to share this good news with you. To date: approximately 50 principals from schools within the Archdiocese have written congratulatory emails to us, Pope John Paul II High School representatives delivered a beautiful vase of blue and white flowers with a balloon and a dozen blue cupcakes, and Mrs. Angela Rufo, our Middle States Association consultant sent congratulation to all of us. An administrator at FACT, the tuition collection company, wrote a letter of congratulations to students, teachers, and parents. Yesterday, we received a letter from Mrs. Elizabeth DeVos, the US Secretary of Education. Archbishop Charles Chaput, Bishop John McIntyre, and Bishop Michael Fitzgerald wrote letters of congratulations to the entire STC community.

Thank you to everyone who helped us with Grandparents Day today. We had the largest crowd in three years. We appreciate everyone who needed to make arrangements to be with us. Thank you to all the parents who helped to set up last night after volleyball practice and who were here today to assist in setting up, serving, and cleaning up after the reception. All of us at STC appreciate the help and assistance. Happy Weekend to everyone!

Ms. Dixon
