Valentine Classroom Celebrations

The usual Valentine Day classroom celebrations will take place on Tuesday, February 13th instead of the 14th. This year the 14th is Ash Wednesday as well as Valentine's Day. Therefore, in school, we shall celebrate on Tuesday. Thank you for your understanding with this matter.

Parents of CARES students

Reminder: If there is a day you change the CARES schedule for your child, please notify Mrs. Jackie Stiles in the Child Care Office and your child's teacher. The CARES staff must be informed of a change in your plans. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Protecting God's Children-New Session Date

The session that was postponed because of the weather is scheduled now for Wednesday, February 21st at 6:00 PM. The class will take place in Room 209. All adults who work with children, including volunteers, need this class. If you wish to register, go to www.virtus.org. Once there set up a username and password, go to the session on Protecting God's Children, click on Archdiocese of Philadelphia, and register for the session here on 2/21.

FYI Continuous Improvement Survey

Recently, the Office of Enrollment Management of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia has sent out a Continuous Improvement Survey to parents of the Archdiocesan schools. They want this survey to become an annual initiative. The window for the survey is February 5th through March 2nd. Please be on the lookout for the survey. Once the window closes, Mr. Nick Regina, the head of the Enrollment Management Office, will share the results of the survey with us.

Happy Weekend to you! Thank you for your daily support! It means the world.
Ms. Dixon
