Happy 2018 Catholic Schools Week
Catholic Schools Learn, Serve, Lead, and Succeed!

All Supporters of Catholic Education

Calling all parents, grandparents, volunteers, friends, and prayers

The invitation that is attached to the notes this week is for any supporter of Catholic education. If your schedule permits, you are most welcome to join us on Friday, February 2nd as we celebrate the Presentation of Our Lord and the closing of Catholic Schools Week. If you cannot attend, please know that your continuous support means the world to us. Mass on Friday morning is at 9:00 AM.

Financial Aid: If you are planning to apply for financial assistance with tuition for the 2018-2019 school year, please begin the application process now. For families receiving financial support, please begin the process of applying for the 2018-2019 school year. If you received financial aid for this present school year, please begin the application for next year. FACTS Grant and Aid in the new company the Archdiocese will work with for applications. If you are interested in applying for financial aid please apply online to: <https://onlinefactsmgt.com/aid>. It is very important to begin the application process now.

Snow Make Up Days

The state requirement for 180 days of instruction necessitates that we make up the two snow days that we had last week. Here are the plans for making up these two day and days that we will make up if we have any more snow days. Thank you for your understanding of this school matter.

Holy Thursday, March 28, 2018

Friday, May 25, 2018

If we have more snow days, we will make them up in this order:

Friday, April 20, 2018

Monday, April 2, 2018

Parents of CARES students

Reminder: If there is a day you change the CARES schedule for your child, please notify Mrs. Jackie Stiles in the Child Care Office and your child's teacher. The CARES staff must be informed of a change in your plans. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Have a wonderful weekend, get some rest, and I hope to see you on Sunday or through the week. May God bless you and continue to bless your family! I would like to thank the faculty and staff for their planning and preparations for Catholic Schools Week. While it is a very unique week for us, it takes many hands to prepare for the activities and events. I want to offer a special word of recognition to the committee, Mrs. Martelli, Mrs. Knoke, Mrs. Petrella, Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Richards, and the coordinator, Mrs. Merritt. Thank you for your time, commitment, and dedication.

Ms. Dixon
